VOL. XI, NO. 182.

LIMA, OHIO, FRIDAY, MAY 17, 1895.

PRICE THREE CENTS

Great Heavens!

How fast this meter is running! If some one don't stop it, my gas bill will be larger than my month's salary. It must be a newly patented apparatus. But it makes no difference what it registers; my bill will be large enough, anyhow.

There are other fast moving things, but they don't make your hair stand up straight. For instance, the second arrival of novelties in Children's and Boys' Suits at Michael's. Their Combination Suit, with two pair of Pants and Cap to match, warranted never to rip, are going as fast as this meter; prices always right.

A valuable present goes with every $20.00 purchase at our store.

It Has Begun.

Mt. Butler, of the John Church Co., and Mr. C. Ament, of the Steiny and the Smith & Nixon Co., have been in Lima and Findlay, and from what we have learned of the visits of these two gentlemen we are forced to conclude that some people are going to get some bargains in places and organs of any make in the market. It will be sprung before many days by the grand clearance sale to be inaugurated by Porter & Son. It will be the largest sale of musical instruments ever attempted in Northwestern Ohio, and it will pay all persons contemplating the purchase of any kind of musical instrument to keep their eyes on what Porter & Son intend doing. Call at their musical parlors, 141 south Main street, and see for yourself.

Do not make any purchase under any circumstances until you have seen what Porter & Son have to offer. It will pay farmers who wish to purchase pianos or organs to withhold the purchases until they see the bargains Porter & Son will give them.

LIMA BANK CAUGHT.

Goldsmith & Kalb Discover a Forgery To-day.

Day before yesterday, a man representing himself to be I. O. Williams, presented himself at Goldsmith & Kalb's bank with a promissory note for $98, which he wanted to sell.

The note was dated Beaver Dam, O., May 13th, 1895, and called for fifty-eight per cent. interest, due in six months. The names of Addison Miller and Isaac Williams were endorsed on the note and it was made payable to I. O. Williams.

The note was purchased by the bank, and to-day one of the gentlemen whose names appeared as endorser, stepped into the bank, when Mr. Kalb, remembering the note, mentioned it to him. He did not remember having signed any such note and upon seeing it pronounced it a forgery.

This afternoon constable Miller left for Findlay where Williams is supposed to be, armed with a warrant for his arrest.

WITH HIS GUN

Policeman Lehman Captures an Alleged Robber from Middlepoint.

This morning a tramp wandered into the small town of Middlepoint, west of here on the P., Ft. W. & C., and stole a coat and a pair of trousers belonging to one of the citizens.

C. E. Morris, the marshal of the town, was notified of the robbery and apprehended the tramp just as he was in the act of climbing into an empty box car in an east-bound P., Ft. W. & C. freight train. The marshal tried to get the fellow, but did not have his revolver with him and failed to capture the tramp. The marshal also boarded the train and sent a telegram here, asking for assistance upon the arrival of the train. Policeman Lehman went out on a switch engine and when the train stopped west of this city, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, he stopped a man with his gun, who was trying to escape across the fields. Marshal Morris identified the fellow and he was locked up.

HORRIBLY MANGLED.

A Drunken Man Falls from a P. Ft. W. & C. Freight Train.

About 2 o'clock this morning a man named Burns, living in Delphos, was ground to death beneath a freight train on the P., Ft. W. & C., at that place.

Burns was laborer and had been working about Delphos for some time. Last night he became intoxicated and wandered to the P., Ft. W. & C. depot, and when west-bound freight train No. 81, in charge of Conductor O'Rourke, was pulling through the place he attempted to climb onto a car about eighteen cars ahead of the caboose, but being intoxicated he missed his hold and fell beneath the moving train. The wheels passed over his body from one hip to his neck, and after the last eighteen cars in the train had passed over him he was horribly mangled and was dead when reached.

MAY GET IN.

Lima Will Probably be Admitted to the Inter-State League.

Manager Somers returned home from Columbus late last night, where he had been to interview President Ziegler, of the Inter-State League, in regard to Lima entering the league. He assured Manager Somers that he would find a place for the Lima team and that the team should be ready to start about Monday or Tuesday.

Either Akron or Kenton will drop out, most likely the former, as Akron has failed to post bond for forfeit money. It is to be hoped that Lima will be able to get into the league. If so, we will be treated to some very interesting games. The fore part of next week Lima will play the Wheeling, W. Va., team, one of the strongest in the league.

WHO STOLE THEM?

Seven Hams Taken From a Box Car Near the C. & E. Depot.

Night before last a box car which had been loaded at the C. & E. freight house, was set out on a side track near the Wapak road crossing, and when the conductor of a west-bound freight train stopped to "pick up" the car he discovered that one of the doors had been broken open. He entered the car and found that a barrel of hams and also been broken into, and after the car arrived at Spencerville the contents were checked over and the barrel was short seven hams. Agent F. O. McCoy was notified and the police were requested to investigate the matter.

D. BELL'S,

SILKS.

This week we are showing some good things in Silks—you can find them in four lots at 25c, 35c, 39c and 49c.

Many of them are extra good values at our regular low prices. Others are marked away down. The 35c lot being about half price and the 49 cent lot formerly sold at 75 cents to $1.00.

D. BELL'S,

CARPETS.

Some Carpets are cheap—cheap in quality as well as price; instead of covering six years, they are used up in three, consequently cost twice as much in the end.

Which does it pay to buy? Our Carpets are sold on their merits, their beauty, their wearing qualities—from the way our business keeps growing, we infer that is the kind our people want.

D. BELL'S,

CAPIES.

We are closing out our Spring Capes at less than cost, and as they can be worn all through the season, at such prices as we now offer them, you cannot afford to be without one.

Wash Goods,

Are now receiving much attention from buyers and you will find almost anything you may want in Jaconettes, Organdies, Swisses, Ducks, Piques, &c., in our stock.
